Spiritual Value of Scouting

"A SCOUT IS REVERENT. He is reverent towards God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of customs and religion"—the 13th Scout Law.

"The Boy Scout Movement is, in my judgment, the best organization in the world for the training of our boys and male adolescents. It is governed by Christian principles practically expressed in the boy's every day behavior and service... the Movement also purifies his body, thus enabling him to be vital in spirit and energetic action... if every boy in the United States were a Scout there would be few, if any, gangsters or gunmen 20 years from now. I trust it may spread according to its deserts, which are manifold."

—Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, past president, Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Evangelistic Services Prove Success Here

The Christian Crusade at the First Baptist church closed last Sunday night after two weeks of special evangelistic services attended by large crowds despite the rains. Evangelist Phil Taylor preached stirring Gospel messages and made many friends here. More than 50 are reported converted by Rev. C. Miles Northrup.

The church gave a special offering of $265 toward the Baptist State Evangelism fund.
